Othello Schools Bids Favorable – Projects Awarded

OTHELLO, WA – The Othello School District recently received very favorable bids on two school projects.

TW Clark Construction of Spokane was recently awarded a $7.6 million contract to provide addition and modernization work to Hiawatha Elementary School in Othello, Washington. TW Clark was among twelve contractors to bid on the project. The bids came in under budget, allowing the Othello School District to accept seven alternate bids worth more than $400,000.

Chervenell Construction of Kennewick was recently awarded a $7.1 million contract to provide addition and modernization work to Scootney Springs Elementary School in Othello, Washington. Chervenell was among six contractors to bid the project. Again, the bids were under budget allowing the Othello School District to accept seven alternate bids worth more than $400,000.

Both projects were designed by Architects West, Inc. of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Hiawatha consists of 41,000 s.f. of modernization, 5,200 s.f. new construction, and associated site improvements. Work is scheduled to be complete December 2011. Scootney Springs consist of 44,000 s.f. of modernization, 6,500 s.f. of new construction, and related site improvements. Work is scheduled to be complete August 2012.
